This document constitutes the Final Terms relating to the issue of Notes under the Notes/Certificates Programme of Commerzbank Aktiengesellschaft (the "Programme") and shall be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus dated 2 December 2009, as amended from time to time. Full information on the Issuer and the offer of the Notes is only available on the basis of the combination of these Final Terms, and the Base Prospectus and supplements thereto, if any. I. Terms and Conditions:

The Programme Terms and Conditions dated 2 December 2009 (the "Programme Terms and Conditions") shall be amended by incorporating the terms of the Final Terms, and by deleting all provisions not applicable to the respective Tranche of the respective Series (the "Consolidated Terms") in the form attached hereto as Annex 1. The Consolidated Terms shall replace the Programme Terms and Conditions in their entirety. If and to the extent the Consolidated Terms deviate from the Programme Terms and Conditions, the Consolidated Terms shall prevail.

Additional Risk Factors	Product-specific risks No person should purchase the Notes unless that person understands the mechanics of the Notes and the extent of that person's exposure to potential loss. Each prospective purchaser of Notes should consider carefully whether the Notes are suitable for it in the light of such purchaser's circumstances and financial position. In this context, investors should take into consideration the risks of an investment in the Notes (risks relating to the Issuer as well as risks relating to the type of the Notes).

Prospective investors are advised that in considering whether or not to purchase the Notes, among other things the following may be taken into account:

The redemption of the Notes is at par. A potential profit from an investment in the Notes is therefore limited to the aggregate amount of Coupon payments. If there are no Coupon payments during the term of the Notes and the purchase price of the investor is higher than 100% of the Denomination, the Noteholder will incur a loss.

Coupon payments, if any, will be made on a yearly basis on the Coupon Payment Dates specified in the Terms and Conditions. A Coupon will be paid on a Coupon Payment Date only if the arithmetic means of the Performances of the Underlyings on the respective Valuation Date is above 100%. Investors are advised that the Performance of the eight best performing Underlyings will be replaced by 108% and that the Performance of the two Worst Performing Shares will be capped at 108%, no matter what the real Performances of these Underlyings are at that date. Considering a total of ten Underlyings, a Coupon will not be payable on the respective Coupon Payment Date in case the sum of the performances of the two worst performing Underlyings is equal to or below 136%, and additionally such Coupon will under no circumstances exceed an amount of EUR 80 per Note.

Investors should be aware that the fact that there is more than one Underlying significantly increases the risk that a Coupon will not be payable on a Coupon Payment Date.

Investors are not entitled to receive any dividend payments on the Underlyings and the Terms and Conditions of the Notes will only be adjusted for distributions and other corporate actions relating to the Underlyings in certain limited circumstances.

As of the date of these Final Terms the Issuer is not aware of any material non-public information concerning the Companies, corporate events of the Companies including those described in § 7 of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes are beyond the Issuer's ability to control and are difficult to predict.

Under certain limited circumstances as set forth in these Final Terms, the Notes may be redeemed early, which may adversely affect the economics of the Notes for the investor.

The market value of the Notes will be affected by a number of factors independent of the creditworthiness of the Issuer and the value of the Underlyings, including, but not limited to, the volatility of the Underlyings, the dividend rate on the Underlyings, the Companies' financial results and prospects, market interest and yield rates and the time remaining to any redemption date or maturity. In addition, the value of the Underlyings depends on a number of inter-related factors, including economic, financial and political events and including factors affecting capital markets generally and the stock exchanges on which the Underlyings are traded. The price at which a Noteholder will be able to sell Notes prior to maturity may be at a discount, which, among other reasons, could be substantial from the aggregated principal amount thereof, if, at such time, the market price of the Underlyings are below, equal to or not sufficiently above the market price of the Underlyings at the date of these Final Terms. The historical market prices of the Underlyings should not be taken as an indication of the Underlyings' future performance during the lifetime of the Notes.

There can be no assurance as to how the Notes will trade in the secondary market or whether such market will be liquid or illiquid.

Application has been made to list the Notes on the Euronext Paris. No assurance can be given that there will be a market for the Notes.

Risks relating to the Issuer

Investors are exposed to the default risk of the Issuer.

The value of the Notes is not only subject to the performance of the Underlying, but among others also to the creditworthiness of the Issuer, which may vary over the term of the Notes.

	The Notes represent general contractual unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and are ranking pari passu with all other unsecured unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, save for obligations preferred by operation of law.
	For further information on risk factors, especially to risk factors relating to Commerzbank Aktiengesellschaft reference is made to the Base Prospectus, in particular the consideration set forth therein under "RISK FACTORS".
Additional taxation Disclosure	Not Applicable
Additional further information	Investors should note that the Initial Prices of the Underlyings will be fixed on the Strike Date (15 July 2010). The Initial Prices will be the closing prices of the Underlyings as of the Strike Date.

1. If in the opinion of the Calculation Agent (§ 10) an Adjustment Event or an Extraordinary Event (both as defined below) has occurred, the Issuer is entitled, but not obligated, to make adjustments to the Terms and Conditions taking into consideration the provisions set forth hereinafter. If in the opinion of the Calculation Agent an Extraordinary Event has occurred, the Issuer is entitled, but not obligated, to (instead of an adjustment) terminate and redeem all, but not less than all, Notes prematurely at the Early Redemption Amount (§ 4 paragraph 3) by giving notice in accordance with § 13 where an adjustment is not possible or would be unreasonable.

2. When making adjustments to the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer shall act in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 of the German Civil Code) and is entitled, but not obligated, to take into consideration the adjustments to options or futures contracts relating to the Underlying made by the Related Exchange or that would have been made by the Related Exchange if such options or futures contracts were traded on the Related Exchange.
3. However, the Issuer is also entitled to make other adjustments taking into consideration the before-mentioned principles.
4. Adjustments take effect as from the date determined by the Issuer. Adjustments as well as the effective date shall be notified by the Issuer in accordance with § 13.
5. If on the Strike Date the Reference Price of an Underlying is not determined and published by the Exchange, or if on the Strike Date, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a Market Disruption Event with respect to an Underlying occurs, then the next following Exchange Business Day on which the Reference Price of the Underlying is again determined and published by the Exchange and on which there is no Market Disruption Event with respect to the Underlying will be deemed to be the Strike Date.

If on a Valuation Date the Reference Price of an Underlying is not determined and published by the Exchange, or if on a Valuation Date, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a Market Disruption Event with respect to an Underlying occurs, then the next following Exchange Business Day on which the Reference Price of the Underlying is again determined and published by the Exchange and on which there is no Market Disruption Event with respect to the Underlying will be deemed to be the Valuation Date.

If according to the before-mentioned provisions a Valuation Date is postponed until the second Exchange Business Day prior to the directly following Coupon Payment Date or the Redemption Date, as the case may be, and if on such date the Reference Price of the Underlying is still not determined and published by the Exchange or if a Market Disruption Event occurs or is continuing on such date, such date prior to the directly following Coupon Payment Date or the Redemption Date, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the relevant Valuation Date, and the Calculation Agent will, in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 of the German Civil Code) and in consideration of the prevailing market conditions, estimate the Reference Price of the Underlying on such date, which shall be notified by the Issuer in accordance with § 13.

6. For the purposes of this § 7 the following definitions shall apply:

- (c) the adjustment of options or futures contracts relating to the Underlying on the Related Exchange or the announcement of such adjustment; or

"Extraordinary Event" means any of the following events:

- (a) a takeover-bid, i.e. an offer to take over or to swap or any other offer or any other act of an individual person or a legal entity that results in the individual person or legal entity buying, otherwise acquiring or obtaining a right to buy more than 10% of the outstanding shares of the Company as a consequence of a conversion or otherwise, as determined by the Issuer based on notifications to the competent authorities or on other information determined as relevant by the Issuer;

- (d) the Issuer and/or its affiliates (§ 15 of the German Stock Corporation Act) are, even following economically reasonable efforts, not in the position (i) to enter, re-enter, replace, maintain, liquidate, acquire or dispose of any transactions or investments that the Issuer considers necessary to hedge its risks resulting from the assumption and performance of its obligations under the Notes or (ii) to realize, regain or transfer the proceeds resulting from such transactions or investments;

"Market Disruption Event" means the occurrence or existence of any suspension of, or limitation imposed on, trading (by reason of movements in price exceeding the limits permitted by the Exchange or otherwise) in (a) the Share on the Exchange, or (b) any options contracts or futures contracts relating to the Underlying on the Related Exchange, provided that any such suspension or limitation is material in the reasonable discretion of the Issuer (§ 315 of the German Civil Code) for the evaluation of the Notes and the fulfilment of its obligations under the Notes. The occurrence of a Market Disruption Event shall be published in accordance with § 13.

A limitation regarding the office hours or the number of days of trading will not constitute a Market Disruption Event if it results from an announced change in the regular business hours of the relevant exchange. A limitation on trading imposed during the course of a day by reason of movements in price exceeding permitted limits shall only be deemed to be a Market Disruption Event in the case that such limitation is still prevailing at the time of termination of the trading hours on such date.

§ 8 (PRESENTATION PERIODS, PRESCRIPTION)

The period for presentation of the Notes (§ 801, paragraph 1, sentence 1 of the German Civil Code) shall be ten years and the period of limitation for claims under the Notes presented during the period for presentation shall be two years calculated from the expiry of the relevant presentation period.

The right to declare Notes due pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be exercised by a Noteholder by delivering or sending by registered mail to the Principal Paying Agent a written notice which shall state the principal amount of the Notes called for redemption and shall enclose evidence of ownership reasonably satisfactory to the Principal Paying Agent.

§ 14 (AVAILABLE INFORMATION)

Commerzbank hereby undertakes to furnish upon the request of a Noteholder or the holder of any beneficial interest in a Note, upon the request of such holder or to a prospective purchaser designated by such holder or beneficial owner, the information required to be delivered under Rule 144A(d)(4) under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended if, at the time of the request, Commerzbank is neither a reporting company under Section 13 or 15(d) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("U.S. Exchange Act"), nor exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the U.S. Exchange Act.

§ 15 (LIMITATION OF LIABILITY)

The Issuer, the Paying Agents and the Calculation Agent shall be held responsible for acting or failing to act in connection with the Notes only if, and insofar as, it either (i) breaches material obligations under or in connection with the Terms and Conditions of the Notes negligently or wilfully or (ii) breaches other obligations with gross negligence or wilfully.

§ 16 (FINAL CLAUSES)

1. The form and content of the Notes and the rights and duties of the Noteholders, the Issuer, the Calculation Agent and the Paying Agents shall in all respects be governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.

2. In the event of manifest typing or calculation errors or similar manifest errors in the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer shall be entitled to declare rescission (Anfechtung) to the Noteholders. The declaration of rescission shall be made without undue delay upon becoming aware of any such ground for rescission (Anfechtungsgrund) and in accordance with § 13. Following a declaration of rescission by the Issuer, the Noteholder is entitled to request repayment of the Issue Price by delivery of a duly completed redemption notice to the Principal Paying Agent on the form available at the Principal Paying Agent or by providing all information and statements requested therein (the "Redemption Notice") and by transfer of the Notes to the account of the Principal Paying Agent with the Clearing System. The Issuer shall make available the Issue Price to the Note Agent within five Payment Business Days following receipt of the Redemption Notice and of the Notes by the Note Agent, whichever receipt is later, whereupon the Note Agent shall transfer the Issue Price to the account specified in the Redemption Notice. Upon payment of the Issue Price all rights under the Notes delivered shall expire.
3. The Issuer may combine the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 2. with an offer to continue the Notes on the basis of corrected Terms and Conditions. Such an offer and the corrected provisions shall be notified to the Noteholders together with the declaration of rescission in accordance with § 13. Any such offer shall be deemed to be accepted by a Noteholder (and the rescission shall not take effect), unless the Noteholder requests repayment of the Issue Price within four weeks following the date on which the offer has become effective in accordance with § 13 by delivery of a duly completed Redemption Notice to the Principal Paying Agent and by transfer of the Notes to the account of the Principal Paying Agent with the Clearing System pursuant to paragraph 2. The Issuer shall refer to this effect in the notification.
4. "Issue Price" within the meaning of paragraphs 2. and 3. shall be the actual purchase price paid at the time of the first purchase of the Notes delivered for repayment.
5. Contradictory or incomplete provisions in the Terms and Conditions may be corrected or amended, as the case may be, by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 of the German Civil Code). The Issuer, however, shall only be entitled to make such corrections or amendments which are reasonably acceptable to the Noteholders having regard to the interests of the Issuer and in particular which do not materially adversely affect the legal or financial situation of the Noteholders. Notice of any such correction or amendment shall be given to the Noteholders in accordance with § 13.
6. If the Noteholder was aware of typing or calculation errors or similar errors at the time of the acquisition of the Notes, then, notwithstanding paragraphs 2 - 5, the Noteholders can be bound by the Issuer to the corrected Terms and Conditions.
7. Place of performance is Frankfurt am Main.
8. Place of jurisdiction for all disputes and other proceedings in connection with the Notes for merchants, entities of public law, special funds under public law and entities without a place of general jurisdiction in the Federal Republic of Germany is Frankfurt am Main. In such a case, the place of jurisdiction in Frankfurt am Main shall be an exclusive place of jurisdiction.
